Dear Mr. Jensen:

STAT
I recall with pleasure meeting you at the home of [redacted] and I appreciate your reminding me of this in your letter of 17 October 1961.

You are correct in your assumption that various publishers and editors of periodicals have communicated with me as to any writing I might do when I leave my present duties as Director of Central Intelligence. I have made no commitments and will not do so until after I leave Government service.

You can be assured I will keep in mind the interest of American Heritage.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
